

FEBRUARY 2017

HAVE YOU HEARD...

Community Support Report

Community Support Services have much to celebrate from 2016.

Highlights include:

- Serving more than 30,000 individuals overall
- Expanded employment service locations to 6 counties
- Expanded credentialing programs for those interested in culinary and automotive careers
- Assisting 146 families with navigating the healthcare system
- A 39% increase in the number of military veterans and their families served
- Nearly 60 businesses were started or sustained by MicroEnterprise graduates, and they hired an additional 25 employees.

New Store to Open at Heritage Bay

Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida will be opening a new 15,000 square foot Retail Store and Donation Center at 8915 Sage Avenue, Naples Florida, commonly referred to as Heritage Bay.

This store will create approximately 30 new jobs for the community and will have a new merchandising concept and format that will be a great addition for our customers. The store will also include a two lane covered donation drive thru for maximum convenience and comfort.

The opening is tentatively scheduled for early spring 2017.

Mission Spotlight

Welcome our new Able Trust High School High Tech Coordinator

Taylor Hughes

Taylor Hughes recently joined Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida as an Able Trust Florida High School High Tech program coordinator for Collier County. A Pittsburgh native, Taylor currently resides in Naples. She attended Point University in Pittsburgh, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Psychology. She spent a lot of time volunteering with the Pittsburgh school district, working with students with special needs. When she's not working, she enjoys reading and playing with her dog, Dexter!

What is High School High Tech?

The Able Trust Florida High School High Tech (HSHT) program provides opportunities for students with disabilities and other barriers to explore potential future careers. The program is designed to help students determine their interests and aptitudes, offer job-shadowing and internships, and provide leadership opportunities. HSHT has been shown to reduce high school dropout rates and increase the overall self-esteem of participating students. To learn more visit www.goodwillswfl.org/HSHT
