Mission Spotlight - MicroEnterprise Institute Culinary Training Graduate Ashley Okerstrom

Ashley had always been interested in learning culinary skills, and saw the program as an opportunity to find a new way to support her family. Ashley attended culinary certification classes faithfully, and learned basic cooking techniques, how to prepare stocks and sauces, how to plan and execute a menu for a five-course meal, and other skills. Her determination and enthusiasm paid off quickly.

Before the class even ended, she had already found a culinary job in South Fort Myers. And Chef Pyro Rodriguez, the culinary training instructor, was so impressed with her skills that he hired her as a sous chef in his catering business, Pyro's Creations.

More recently, Ashley has accepted a position working at the award-winning restaurant Jack's Farm to Fork at Pink Shell Resort on Fort Myers Beach. She can often also be found at local farmer's markets, selling fresh made marinara sauce and other home-cooked items. "She's really found her niche," explains Shari Clark, Pine Manor Community Center Coordinator.
