Thank you for your donation!

Your white donation receipt is your receipt to keep for your tax purposes and your files. You can also use the ID number on the white receipt to generate an electronic tax receipt to keep in an e-donation folder on your computer.

To create an electronic-donor receipt folder visit:
www.swflgoodwillreception.org and follow these steps:

1. First time user: Enter the receipt ID# and create a donor profile with a password.
2. Existing users: Log-in with your password and select add new donation.
3. Click “get tax receipt” and your electronic receipt will be sent to your email and logged in your personal e-donation folder.

Take the hassle out of searching for your receipts at the end of the year. Create an e-donation folder for your receipts!

Goodwill Donor Concierge

Leave it to us...

Letting things go can be difficult.

Moving to a new city, downsizing to a smaller home, or the loss of a loved one all bring tough decisions: which items to keep, which items to donate to charity, and which items to discard.

Goodwill’s Donor Concierge Service Team can help guide you through this process.

Our Donor Concierge Service Team will:
- Come to your location (limited locations in Collier & Lee counties).
- Assess the size and quality of your donation.
- Pack your donations with care and transport them to Goodwill.
- Your generosity will change lives right here in Southwest Florida.

Goodwill’s Donor Concierge service is FREE, and you will be provided with both peace of mind and a donation receipt for tax purposes.
