

Our Mission: Committed to serving people with disabilities and disadvantages by offering life-changing opportunities to achieve independence.

Support Goodwill SWFL Mission Services
this Giving Tuesday, November 30th!

Start the holiday season with a donation to Goodwill SWFL's Mission Services! When you financially support our non-profit, you fund services that empower individuals with disabilities and disadvantages in Southwest Florida. Through our disabilities services, employment training and literacy support, housing, and small business development, your dollars will help us fill the gaps in services for our upcoming community! You can make a change for good.

Build a better SWFL through Amazon Smile

We know you love supporting your community and finding good deals, which is why Amazon Smile is a great way to give back to Goodwill's mission. By selecting Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida when you shop smile.amazon.com, you will support Goodwill's disability services, employment training and support, small business development, and housing!

Mission Moments

Goodwill SWFL receives SHIP funds for housing

The Lee County Board of Commission has approved the allocation of SHIP Funding (State Housing Initiative Partnership program) to make necessary upgrades and renovations to two of Goodwill Housing apartment complexes, The Pines in North Fort Myers and Country Cove in Lehigh Acres. The funding totaling more $600,00 for these two projects will be used to renovate a total of 28 apartments for people with physical disabilities.

Goodwill Industries of SWFL has been providing housing for people with physical disabilities and income sensitive seniors for more than 23 years.

Goodwill SWFL CEO in top 30 nonprofit executives of 2021 by Community Foundation

John Nadeau, Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida's CEO & President, was recently selected as one of the top 30 nonprofit executives in Southwest Florida. Every year, the Community Foundation honors top achievers and community builders who perform their duties with integrity and honesty, making a substantial impact in SWFL.

Amalia Cruz, Lehigh Acres Goodwill CRC coordinator.

Community Resource Centers receive support in 2021

Goodwill CRCs provide free digital skills training, employability workshops, assist with applications for Access, child tax credit payments, navigation of the healthcare network, and free tax filing through VITA, and much more. We would like to thank those who provided support in 2021.

Goodwill SWFL Receives $15,000 Grant from Truist

Goodwill received a $15,000 grant from Truist Financial Corporation through its Truist Charitable Fund, a donor-advised fund at The Winston-Salem Foundation, to support the MicroEnterprise Institute.

"This grant will help ensure the MicroEnterprise Institute continues to provide entrepreneurs valuable education and experiences that can inspire and build better lives and communities," said Iwan Mohamed, West Florida regional president for Truist. "With each graduating class, Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida strengthens the network of small businesses in our region and helps our communities thrive."

Patty Sweeney, owner of Sweeney S.O.S. and Carlos Jimenez, owner of Chipmunk Bounce Houses, recieved a Truist grant through SWFL MicroEnterprise Institute

For more information on the MicroEnterprise Institute, contact Sandra Plazas at (239) 995-2106 Ext. 2304 or email.

Remember Small Business Saturday is November 27th

MicroEnterprises are the backbone of our Southwest Florida economy. Goodwill Southwest Florida's MicroEnterprise Institute program is designed to help individuals with low to moderate income levels and other disadvantages to start or stabilize their own business.

You can support future business owners by providing financial support to our program. Your generosity will allow more individuals to build a brighter future.

Suncoast Goodwill visits the Opportunity Center

We were happy to host staff from Suncoast Goodwill here at the Goodwill Opportunity Center, at 5100 Tice Street in Fort Myers.

Suncoast Goodwill operates out of the Tampa/St. Pete/Clearwater area. We are helping them launch a new point of sale system in their retail stores, and assisting with the technology to make their transition seamless.

2021 United Way Campaign

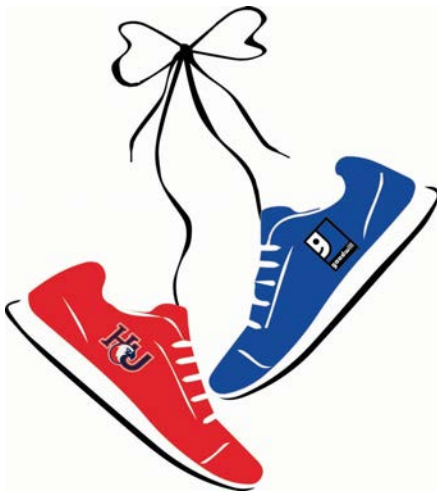

Goodwill SWFL contributes to the United Way each year through an employee contribution campaign. This year, the goal was $19,000. Goodwill SWFL employees not only met that goal, but exceeded it, raising a total of $26,359.50 for the United Way. Goodwill SWFL is a United Way Community Partner.

3rd Annual Spooktacular Pet Costume Contest

We hosted our 3rd Annual Pet Costume Contest at the Millennial Brewing Company on Saturday, October 23rd. This year, 26 dogs were entered with a ton of spectators, and a few local dog rescues attending. Thank you to everyone's participation and to the Millennial Brewing Company (who donated their portion of the proceeds and 10% of the bar take). We raised over $500 for our Pathways to Opportunity scholarship program, which will help people with disabilities get access to training and maximize their independence.
